

ASRM PhD Student Self-Assessment

Name:

Written Self-Assessments:

Summary for Calendar Year: Please provide a brief summary of all accomplishments and professional activities for the past year. You may elaborate on this summary in the subsequent fields below.

Coursework for Calendar Year: Please provide a brief summary of all course activities for the past year, including courses completed and progress within the program. Also indicate any courses taken that remain as incomplete.

Research Activities for Calendar Year: Please provide a brief summary of all research activities for the past year. This can include class research projects, directed studies, local / regional / national conference presentations, publications, presentations during Research Day, presentations during Research Evening, progress in your dissertation research such as writing the proposal, defending the proposal, working on dissertation analyses/results, or any individual or collaborative research projects.

Assistantship Activities for Calendar Year: Please provide a brief summary of any assistantship activities for the past year. This can include any teaching (describe your progress in practicing or preparing for instruction at any level), consulting (describe your consulting activities and preparation for professional consultation), research assistantships, or internship activities. Include both on-campus and off-campus work.

Service for Calendar Year: Please provide a brief summary of service activities for the past year, including anything beneficial to ASRM, CEBS, UNC, or your discipline in general.

Professional Strengths: Please provide a brief self-assessment of your professional strengths.

