

Inspect waste containers holding hazardous wastes once a month for leaks, signs of corrosion, swelling, and proper labeling. If a container is found to be leaking, immediately transfer the waste to a new container. Containers must be closed at all times except when adding wastes. Incompatible wastes must not be stored next to each other unless they have a separate secondary containment.

---

Date of Inspection