

UNC/PEBC Teacher Residency Program Course

Credit Form

The University of Northern Colorado has a collaborative agreement with the Public Education and Business Coalition Teacher Residency program. Students who have been admitted into one of UNC's graduate programs as listed below, and upon successful completion of PEBC Teacher Residency program, will be awarded course credits as identified in the table. To receive course credit, the attached form must be completed, with the appropriate signatures, and submitted to the Graduate School. The Academic Advisor is responsible for verifying credit requirements as listed below.

PEBC Teacher Residency to UNC Credit

| UNC Programs | UNC Program Credits | UNC Credits Awarded (after successful completion of the PEBC Teacher Residency program) |
|--|---------------------|---|
| Education MAT: Culturally and Linguistically Diverse | 30 | 6 credits ECLD 602 (3), ECLD 604 (3) |
| Teaching Diverse Learners MA | 33 | 9 credits ECLD 596 (3) EDS 603 (6) only if PEBC students fulfill the following in the PEBC Teacher Residency program: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Spend 40 hours with a Special Education teacher that will include observations and co-teaching 2. Spend 40 hours with a CLD teacher that will include observations and co-teaching These 80 hours will need to be documented and submitted to the student's MA in TDL advisor. |
| Graduate Interdisciplinary Degree Program MA: Science Education Emphasis | 30 | 6 credits Two out of the three of the following courses: ECLD 602, SCED |